NUMB. 3042

SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1745.

Extrait of a Private Letter from the Hague, dated June the 19th, 1745.

Mong other Regulations that are said to have been made for carrying on the War with Vigour, we are assured that one is, the granting a Subsidy to the Elector of Bavaria of 100,000 Ducats per Annum. One-fourth of which only is to be paid by this State. In Consideration of which, he is to furnish 17,000 Men to the Maritime Powers; which is so much a greater Accession of Strength, as it is not only added to the Confederate Armies, but also taken from the Enemy. We have no longer the least Suspicion of the upright Intentions of that Court; the Elector taking every Day such Precautions for reducing his Expences, as evidently shew that he has nothing in View but maintaining that Peace which has been so lately restor'd to his Country, and of which himself and his Subjects stood in so much Need. The last Propositions made by M. Chavigni, were received in very strong Terms, but were propos'd only in Word of Mouth, that Minister absolutely refusing to put them into Writing, or to leave any Memorial behind him on his quitting the Court; which evidently shew'd, that France has lost all her Hopes on that Side; and it is highly probable, will, in a very short time, lose all the rest of her German Allies.

The more their High Mightinesses consider the Conduct of the Prince of Waldeck, the more Reasons they find to approve it, and to be satisfied with every Thing he has done; more especially, in regard to the Disposition of Commands, in which, notwithstanding the Powers he had receiv'd, he has acted with so much Moderation, that no Officer of any Rank whatever, has had the least Occasion given him to complain; his Highness having had no respect in those Dispositions, to any Thing but Length of Service, and Merit. In Councils of War, he has always shewn the most Inclinacion to forward the Service, and to conform with the Sentiments of the Duke of Cumberland, and Field-Marshal Konigsegg; so that there never was a greater Harmony in a Confederate Army, than at present. We are assured, that his Majesty is resolv'd to carry the Augmentation he has promis'd as high as 22,000 Men; of which, 10,000 will consist of Austrians taken into his Pay; and the rest, he proposes to furnish 6000 Hanoverians. We are likewise determin'd to act in the same manner, and to augment our Reinforcements to 14,000 Men; so that his Royal Highness's Army will be very soon in a Condition not only to put a stop to the French Conquests, but to undertake the conquest themselves.

In the midst of all these Military Preparations, there are some Whispers of Peace. It is said, that not long ago, the Marquis de St. Giles, in a Conference he had with the Abbe de la Ville, within these few Days, gave Notice, that it would be a very easy Matter for France to extricate herself out of the present War; and that there was good Reason to believe Great Britain, in consideration of some Advantages in favour of her Cause, would be no longer averse to the settling Donations in Italy, on moderate Terms, and without expending too much to be done at the Expence of the Emperor of Austria. To this the French Minister answered, that if Spain and Great Britain were weary of the War, he was very sure his Most Christian Majesty was as much dispos'd to see it concluded; but that after such a prodigious Expence as he had been oblig'd to make, and the Disappointments he had met with, it was unreasonable for him to expect some Compensation; perhaps, he might be content with the Cession of the Duchy of Luxembourg, and being left at Liberty to pursue his Conquests in Italy. This Conversation was immediately published by the Marquis; with an Intent, no doubt, to discover what Reception it would meet with in the World.

SCHWANBERG'S LIQUID-SALT.
To be taken as soon as in the GRAVEL and STONE.
THE Rev. Dr. HALES, and others, have demonstrated by various Experiments, That the of Mrs. Stevens's Medicine for the GRAVEL and STONE depend upon the SALTS of Lime in the Albumen of calcin'd Shells; but its enormous Dose renders it so that it is almost impossible to take it in a manner sufficient answer any good End. This, then, will info in such Persons who are afflicted with the GRAVEL and STONE M. SCHWANBERG, a learned and ingenious Gentleman, has verified in the most abstruse Operations of Chymistry, the thod of Liquifying calcin'd Shells, so as to become like Rock-water, yet not corrosive. They give almost immediate Relief in the most violent Pains of the GRAVEL and STONE, performed in, will, in time, bid fair for dissolving a Stone in Urinary Passages, when too large to pass off separately. may be depended on in the Wind-Colic, and all kind of tendencies; and where an Alcali is wanted, will answer the sired End. A Child may take them in the mouth, or drink Fever, and Uneasiness, which Children are subject to, on Acidities, the known Cause of most of their Disorders.
It is remarkable, That those who take them for STONE, have a Sediment in their Urine resembling Chalk: Now, that this Sediment is a Portion of the Stone sol'd, is evident from an Experiment in the Power of one to make a for, put an human Stone, similar in the passages, into a Vial of the Liquid-SALT, and it will allly dissolve into a White Powder, exactly resembling the Urine of Persons who take it as a Medicine for the and this in an Heat not greater than our daily heat, yet the same time, not in the least affect the patient's in; and, which surprisingly will, upon the Addition of an
